Situated in one of the best and most sought-after areas in Renfrew is this four-bedroom period red sandstone-built mid-terraced villa.

Property Description

The accommodation begins with a welcoming entrance vestibule, leading to a bright, airy hallway with a sweeping staircase to the upper level. On the ground floor, from the hall, you have the formal family lounge with a feature fire and bay window, allowing plenty of natural light. Just off the hall to the rear is the dining room, which in turn provides access to the kitchen, featuring a range of floor- and wall-mounted storage units and contrasting worktops, a Belfast-type sink, dual aspects, and a feature sandstone wall. The kitchen has door access to the rear garden with mature planting, and an apple and cherry tree; to the rear of the garden sits the garage.

From the hall, up the stairs, the family bathroom sits on the half landing and features a three-piece suite with a shower over the bath, finished with a tiled splashback.

Taking to the stairs again to the next level of the home, there are three tastefully decorated double bedrooms, with the master bedroom having a bay window giving lots of natural light.

From the upper hall, stairs lead to the last of the four bedrooms in the loft space, with an airy feel and a bay-windowed dormer.

The current owners have put a lot of time and effort into creating this excellent family home, with tasteful internal décor and retaining period features.

The property further benefits from Gas Central Heating, Double Glazing, a garage, off-street parking at the rear, and private gardens.

Oxford Road sits close to, and within walking distance of, the popular Robertson Park, with its family-friendly play areas and popularity with joggers and dog walkers. Renfrew itself provides an array of local amenities, including supermarkets, shops, bars, restaurants and good transport links, with Braehead shopping complex nearby. Regular bus and train services connect the town to Queen Elizabeth University Hospital and Glasgow City Centre.

The M8 motorway network is also close by, leading to Glasgow International Airport, Glasgow City Centre, and other outlying areas.
